IMPEACHMENT.

We have been thinking, for several weeks past, that we would have nothing to say on the question of impeachment, but the recent actions of President Johnson have so clearly demonstrated that the peace and safety of our country can only be maintained by his ejectment from the White House, that we can no longer refrain from urging this measure. The feeling in favor of impeachment has become so unanimous and demonstrative among the loval people of the country, that Congress can no longer treat their earnest appeals with total indifference. They must act-not with the timidity which has characterhe has proven recreant to the eternal FARDONED REBEL SEY MAKING UP FOR principles of right, truth, and justice.

But there is a remedy-impeachment! All loyal men are unanimous in the conclusion that this is the only remedy. Let it be applied. There is no occasion for a protracted investigation. The facts and evidences are all of record. There is the law, and there is the evidence of its violation, with the motive, intent and purpose be no defence of an avowed and intentional violation of the law. There can be no denial of a criminal intent. The rectors of the St. Joseph and Council President will stand red-handed before they cannot show a single record since tence should be prompt and unanimous.

Then let him be removed. Let him be sent even to a lower deep than that prepared for the apostate archangel. when he plunged over the crystal battlements of Heaven. Let him be branded with eternal shame and infamy, for by his infamous betraval of the country he has merited the public disgrace which a convict incurs, and by which he is a witness or juror in a petty police ourt.
